

Budget 2017 wishlist - #4

Reduction in VAT rate on construction services

A reduction in the rate of VAT on construction services to at least the 9% rate will stimulate activity in this labour-intensive industry. This would result in the building of much needed residential accommodation and the creation of long-term sustainable employment in this sector. As it stands, the share of construction employment in Ireland remains below the pre-boom average.

