

Budget analysis

VAT rate for Tourism sector

The retention of the 9% VAT rate in the hospitality sector is welcome particularly given the current strength of the euro v sterling which makes Ireland a less attractive destination for British tourists. There is no doubt that the introduction of the measure has been a success in terms of jobs creation and has provided the tourism sector with a timely boost. Hopefully its retention will lead to further growth in the sector.

Jarlath O'Keefe
Tax Partner - VAT