

Ending the Housing Shortage

The new Government has committed to build 25,000 houses per year by 2020.

Will Budget 2017 include a reduction in the rate of VAT on construction services to stimulate activity in this labour-intensive industry?

This measure could assist the Government to achieve that target and would lead to the creation of long-term sustainable employment in this sector.

Jarlath O'Keefe
Tax Partner - VAT