

BEPS - Alignment of profits and value-added activities

The government has committed to engaging constructively with any international tax reform. On the global tax front, BEPS and country-by-country reporting are currently centre stage.

Can Ireland capitalise on the BEPS initiative so groups with IP in offshore locations consider onshoring it here, whilst also moving key functions and substance in conjunction with that IP to Ireland?

Sarah Meredith
Tax Director