Organisational change

Organisational change is a constant in today's world, whether driven by customers, markets or technology. However, despite the increasing level of investment in change programmes, a large number fail to deliver. By establishing a solid project management foundation in your organisation, you'll be equipped to deliver your projects effectively.

At Grant Thornton, we have a team of highly experienced programme and project managers with the leadership capabilities to successfully manage and support your high-profile strategic initiatives.

Our services

Programme and project managers

Our team provide on demand experienced project managers that can be utilised on a project by project basis.

Project Management Office (PMO)

We provide support on establishing new PMOs, operating a PMO or advising how to optimise an existing PMO.

Organisational change management

We will ensure your organisation experiences a smooth transition through strategic change.

Project portfolio management

We can coordinate and control management of your full portfolio of projects.

Project health checks and recovery

We undertake project reviews and provide corrective plans to get your project back on track.

Project management consulting

We provide guidance and advice in all aspects of project management from the roll-out of project management methodologies to training for project stakeholders.
