Driving directions (parking available on request) Take the N1 from Dublin Airport to the City Centre. This route takes you through Drumcondra, onto Dorset Street. Drive straight down Dorset Street. Pass the Junction with the North Circular Road. Turn left at the next set of lights, (the 'Auld Triangle' pub on the left hand corner), onto Gardiner Street. Go straight down Gardiner Street and continue until the end where you will be facing the Customs House, following the road around the Customs House in the right hand lane. Go through the traffic lights over Matt Talbot Bridge - changing to the second lane as you cross over. Travel over the bridge, through the lights. Then take the first left turn on to Gloucester Street. Go through the crossroads. The gates into our underground car park are located on the left. Press the buzzer for Security.

If you are coming from the city centre please note that you can no longer turn right over the bridge at Custom House Quay. You must take a left turn before the Customs House (at SIPTU building) and keep right all the way around until you get to the traffic lights at the Matt Talbot Bridge- changing to the second lane as you cross over. Travel over the bridge, through the lights. Then take the first left turn on to Gloucester Street. Go through the crossroads. The gates into our underground car park are located on the left. Press the buzzer for Security
